California Court of Appeals Orders Wells Fargo to Pay Over \$500,000 for False Credit Reporting and Violation of The Fair Credit Reporting Act On September 2,2009, the California Court of Appeal, Fourth Appellate District in Riverside issued its final decision on the appeal of a verdict from the Superior Court in Rancho Cucamonga, San Bernardino County, California which had ordered Wells Fargo Home Mortgage to pay over $1 million dollars in damages, fees and costs to Reed and Mary Ann Fisher of Oceanside. The Fisher's allegations against Wells Fargo arose out of a two-year uncorrected pattern of false and inaccurate credit reporting which damaged the Fisher's credit scores and which also resulted in credit denials. The Court of Appeal reduced the punitive damages award to $150,000.00, but left the balance of the judgment intact. The net result is a judgment against Wells Fargo Home Mortgage of over $500,000.00. The Fishers were represented by Robert F. Brennan, Wiener & Associates in La Crescenta, widely regarded as the leading consumer protection and credit damage law firm in Southern California. Reed & Mary Ann Fisher v.
